Rule 1: Pleadings

All pleadings and other papers filed in a case shall be typewritten and left unfolded for the purpose of filing in flat folders and shall be on 8½" x 11" paper securely bound at the top if containing more than one sheet.

Rule 2: Cost Deposits

The party or parties filing a civil action or proceeding shall deposit a sum to secure the payment of the costs that may accrue in such action or proceeding, except as otherwise provided by law. Such deposit shall be in accordance with the attached schedule marked Exhibit "A", as it shall be amended from time to time.

Rule 3: Time Extensions

When a party desires an extension of time to file a pleading, including an answer, motion, reply to a counterclaim, answer to a cross-claim, answer to a third party complaint, answer to interrogatories, and response to request for admissions, such party may obtain a leave to plead by one of the following procedures:

(a) when no previous leave to plead has been taken, the party may obtain one automatic leave to plead by filing with the Clerk a certification in which such party certifies that he has not theretofore obtained a leave to plead in that case. Such leave to plead may not be for more than twenty-eight (28) days, measured from the date of filing with the Clerk, and shall be in written form with a provision for approval by the Court. A copy shall be served upon all counsel of record and all parties not represented by counsel.

(b) When no previous leave to plead has been taken other than the automatic leave to plead referred to in subparagraph (a), the party may obtain one additional leave to plead by the filing of a certification to the effect that he has obtained only one prior leave to plead and which request is approved by counsel for all parties who have entered an appearance in the case and all parties not represented by counsel who have entered an appearance in the case. Such leave to plead may not be for more than twenty-eight (28) days, measured from the date of filing with the Clerk, and shall be in written form with a provision for approval by the Court. A copy shall be served upon all counsel of record and all parties not represented by counsel who have entered an appearance in the case.

(c) Any leave to plead other than those as described in subparagraphs (a) and (b) may be obtained by a party only by the filing of a written motion, which shall be served upon counsel for all parties who have entered an appearance in the case and all parties not represented by counsel who have entered an appearance in the case. This motion shall be filed with the Clerk at least seven (7) days prior to the otherwise applicable expiration of time in which the party has to file the desired pleadings. Such motion shall set forth good cause as to why an additional leave to plead is necessary.

In the event any party objects to the granting of any leave to plead to any other party, such objecting party may move the Court to shorten the otherwise applicable time, as extended, which motion shall be heard at the earliest opportunity with telephone notice to opposing counsel given by the Assignment Commissioner.

All certifications or motions for leave to plead must be filed with the Clerk before the expiration of the otherwise applicable time limit.

Rule 4: Case Management

A. Preface

The goal of this rule is the prompt but fair disposition of litigation. This goal can only be accomplished by early and continuing judicial control and management of each case assigned to the judge's docket. This rule will establish a general framework for management of cases, leaving to the discretion of the individual judge the use of additional procedures to accomplish the goal of this rule.

B. Scheduling Order

After service of the complaint, the judge assigned to the case shall make a scheduling order. Excepted from the requirement of a scheduling order are the following cases: Appropriations; Appeals from administrative agencies, boards, bureaus and commissions; Injunction actions; Partitions and Foreclosures; and any other cases as determined by the Court. The judge shall make the order only after consulting with all counsel of record at a scheduling conference, which may be conducted in person or by telephone.

The scheduling order shall limit the time:

- (a) To join new parties and to amend the pleadings;
- (b) To file and hear motions;
- (c) To complete discovery.

It also may include:

- (d) The trial date and pretrial date, provided that pretrial conferences shall be set no more than thirty (30) days before the trial date. Pretrial conferences will be scheduled on the Court's own motion or upon written request of counsel;
- (e) Any other matters appropriate to the particular case.

The schedule shall not be modified except by order of the Court.

C. Motions

1. Summary Judgment

Motions for summary judgment will be decided without oral hearing unless oral argument is requested and determined necessary by the Court. Upon the filing of the motion, the Court will fix a "hearing" date as required by Rule 56(C) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, using the form journal entry marked as Exhibit "B" and attached to these rules.

2. All Other Motions

All other motions will be decided without oral hearing unless oral argument is requested and determined necessary by the Court. The moving party shall file with the motion a brief supporting memorandum containing the authorities relied upon and any affidavits or other supporting documents required or appropriate to file with the motion. Each party opposing the motion shall file a written response within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the motion. Reply or additional briefs or memorandums shall be submitted only with the approval of the Court.

D. Continuances

Rule 7(A) and (B) of the Rules of Superintendence for Courts of Common Pleas is incorporated as part of this rule and shall apply to all requests for continuance. Requests for continuance shall be submitted to the judge assigned to the case at least fourteen (14) days prior to the trial or hearing date. Requests for continuance shall be by motion and proposed journal entry, which shall include:

- (a) The reason for the request. If the reason is another case scheduled on the same date in another court, the motion shall include the name of the court, the case caption, the date and time of the conflicting case, and the date that the conflicting case was assigned for trial;
- (b) The time and date of the current assignment;
- (c) new date obtained from the Assignment Commissioner in the event the Court grants the motion for continuance.

E. Trial

1. Motions in limine shall be filed not less than three (3) days prior to trial, except for good cause shown.
2. At least one (1) day prior to trial, if requested by the Court, the parties shall file trial briefs with the judge stating their respective cases, both factual and legal, and bring to the Court's attention and anticipated legal issues which counsel expects to arise during the trial. Copies shall be furnished to opposing counsel prior to trial.

Rule 5: Conduct in the Court Room

- A. All counsel in the trial of matters before the Court shall conduct themselves in the manner required by the ethics of the legal profession and in addressing the Court they shall stand.
- B. Except by permission of the Court, only one attorney on each side will be permitted to speak on any motion or upon any question arising during the trial of a case or proceeding and one attorney only on each side will be permitted to examine the same witness in any trial or proceeding before the Court.
- C. In the final argument to the Court or Jury during any trial, only two attorneys on each side will be heard unless for special reasons the Court permits otherwise.
- D. Attorneys will not be permitted to take part in any proceedings in this Court except in appropriate attire.

Rule 6: Judgment Entries

Except as to certifications and entries granting leave to plead and matters in which the Court prepares a judgment entry, counsel for the prevailing party shall prepare a judgment entry which reflects the previously announced decision of the Court and/or Jury verdict. Such proposed judgment entry shall be submitted to counsel for all parties and all parties unrepresented by counsel who have entered an appearance in the case, who shall approve or object to the proposed entry within seven (7) days after its service and return said entry to the counsel who prepared it. Failure to so respond shall be deemed approval of the proposed entry. If all counsel and parties unrepresented by counsel approve the proposed entry within the time limit set forth herein, upon return of the proposed entry to counsel who prepared it, said counsel shall cause the judgment entry to be delivered to the Court which, when approved and signed by the Court, shall be entered forthwith by the Clerk upon the journal.

If any objection is made to the proposed judgment entry within the aforesaid seven (7) day period, the objecting party shall state his objection in writing and attach these objections to the entry and file the same with the Clerk. In the alternative, the objecting party may file with the Clerk an alternative proposed judgment entry which he feels properly reflects the matter at issue. Both an objection and an alternative proposed entry shall be served upon all counsel and all parties unrepresented by counsel. The Court may resolve the matter of the objections or alternative proposed judgment entry without a hearing or may schedule a hearing upon notice to all parties.

In the event no one party is clearly the prevailing party, the Court shall designate which counsel shall prepare the proposed judgment entry and, in the absence of such designation, the parties may request the Court to make such designation.

All such proposed judgment entries shall be submitted to all counsel of record and all parties unrepresented by counsel within seven (7) days after the decision reflected in the judgment entry.

If, by reason of the number of counsel and parties, it would be too time consuming to circulate the judgment entry to each for direct approval, the counsel preparing the proposed judgment entry may submit the original entry directly to the Court for approval. This shall be appropriate if four (4) or more approvals would be required. Such proposed entry shall, in lieu of the approval of other counsel, contain a certificate of the submitting counsel that on a specified date he mailed a copy of the judgment entry to all counsel or parties whose approval is not endorsed thereon. The Court will withhold approval and filing of the proposed judgment entry until seven (7) days from the date copies were sent to other counsel or parties has expired, which fact shall be reflected in the certificate of service of such proposed entry. If no written objections or alternative proposed judgment entries are filed by the end of such period, and the judgment entry is otherwise acceptable to the Court, the same shall be approved and signed forthwith. In the event of objection or alternative proposed judgment entry, the Court may decide the matter as stated above.

Rule 7: Default Judgment

In addition to the requirements of Civil Rule 55, a party seeking a default judgment shall file a written motion and serve it on the party in default by ordinary mail at his last known address and to the party's attorney, if any, and it shall state that a default judgment is being requested. A default judgment may be granted on or after ten (10) days from the mailing of the notice.

Rule 8: Jury View

In any case where a jury view of the premises is requested and commercial transportation is required, the party making the request shall deposit the amount specified in Exhibit "A" with the Clerk of Courts before the transportation shall be provided. In the event both parties request such a view, each party shall deposit one-half the amount specified in Exhibit "A". The deposit will be applied by the Clerk to the transportation cost and the amount applied will be charged in the court costs against the party ordered to pay the costs.

Rule 9: Transcripts

The furnishing of transcripts by the official court reporters and the amount and method of paying the compensation for them shall be fixed by Court order and as provided by R.C. §2301.21 - 2301.25.

The transcript of proceedings in any case shall not be begun and transcribed by an official reporter for the Court until there is deposited with her or him a sum equal to the estimated cost thereof as the same shall be estimated by the official reporter. In the event the deposit is not sufficient to cover the entire cost of the transcript, the unpaid balance shall be paid to the official reporter before the transcript is delivered to the party ordering it. In the event the deposit exceeds the cost of the transcript, the unused portion thereof shall be returned by the official reporter to the party ordering and paying for the transcript.

Rule 10: Attorneys Not Accepted as Sureties

No attorney or officer of this Court, unless a party to the action, shall furnish bail or act as a surety in any action or matter filed or pending in this Court. This rule shall cover but is not limited to costs and any other undertaking, bond or recognizance required to be given or entered into by a party in any case, civil or criminal, and the Clerk shall not receive or approve any such undertaking, bond or recognizance given or entered into by any attorney as surety.

Rule 11: Notary Public Commissions

No applicant for Notary Public Commission, except attorneys at law, will be approved by the Court until the applicant has received a certificate of qualification from a committee consisting of attorneys appointed by the Wayne County Bar Association with the approval of the Court. The committee will hear and examine the applicants at least one day each week. The provisions of this rule will be waived by the Court in the case of renewal applications provided the renewal application is made before the expiration of the applicant's current commission and the application is approved by the committee.

Rule 12: Attorney Fees in Partition Cases

The attorney(s) in an action before this Court for the partition of real estate pursuant to R.C. §5307.01 - 5307.25 inclusive, who have rendered services in connection with such partition litigation shall be allowed compensation for services rendered taxed as costs out of the fund created by virtue of said services. Further, all other counsel representing parties to the action may likewise be compensated out of the fund, taxed as costs for services rendered in accordance with the relationship said services have to the creation of the fund for the common benefit of all parties. All counsel requesting compensation for their services shall submit an itemized statement under oath to the Court which shall contain the following information:

1. The attorney's usual hourly rate and a designation as to whether he represents a plaintiff or defendant.
2. A detailed accounting of the time which the attorney has involved in the case.
3. The amount the attorney expects to be compensated for said services.

The Court, in arriving at the fee to be allowed any counsel, shall consider the following criteria:

1. The extent to which the attorney's services contributed to the creation of the fund.
2. The time required to conclude the matter.
3. The complexity of the issues of fact and law involved.
4. The skill required of counsel.
5. The usual and ordinary hourly charge made by attorneys.

These criteria shall not be construed to limit the matters which the Court may consider in determining fees.

A proposed fee of five percent (5%) of the first Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) of the sale proceeds and two percent (2%) of the remainder above Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) may be approved by the Court. This rule shall also apply to proceedings for the sale of real estate by fiduciary or for any other action for the sale of real estate in which attorney fees are allowed by law for services performed in such proceedings.

Rule 13: Judicial Sales of Real Estate

1. Any party seeking a judicial sale of real estate shall file with the Clerk certifications, in the form attached hereto as "Judicial Sale Certifications," at each of the following stages of the proceedings:

- a. Filing of the Complaint (or other pleading seeking a judicial sale of real estate): Wayne County Judicial Sale Certification 13-A;

- b. Submission of the proposed Order or Judgment Entry ordering the sale of the real estate (Decree of Foreclosure, Order of Partition, etc.): Wayne County Judicial Sale Certification 13-B;
 - c. Filing of the Precipe for Order of Sale: Wayne County Judicial Sale Certification 13-C; and
 - d. Submission of the proposed order confirming the sale (Order of Confirmation and Distribution, etc.): Wayne County Judicial Sale Certification 13-D.
2. In an action seeking the judicial sale of real estate, all real estate other than residential real estate consisting of one to four single-family residential units shall be subject to the title requirements set out in ORC Section 2329.191(C).
3. This rule shall not be applicable to tax foreclosures instituted by the county Treasurer pursuant to Chapter 323 and Chapter 5721 of the Ohio Revised Code.
4. An additional fee of $600.00 will be required at the time of the filing of each Alias Precipe for Order of Sale.

Motions for ex parte relief and/or temporary orders shall then be sent to the Magistrate from the clerk of court's office, who shall, after reviewing the appropriate pleadings and supporting affidavits, issue a Magistrate's Order granting or denying, in whole or part, the relief requested, and/or scheduling the matter for a hearing.

- B) Whenever an attorney files any complaint or pleading with the court in which ex parte relief is sought and the attorney knows that the adverse party is represented by counsel, the party seeking such relief shall notify the court at the time he/she files the request for relief of the other attorney's involvement by including the name, address and telephone number of opposing counsel in the motion for ex parte relief. Said hearing shall be scheduled within ten (10) days of the issuance of the order to vacate.

- C) Where there are circumstances which require a party to seek an emergency ex parte order (e.g., threat to remove the child from the jurisdiction of the court or allegations of physical or sexual abuse), the party seeking the emergency order may move the court for the issuance of such order on an ex parte basis by forwarding the motion, supporting affidavits, and self-authenticating documents, to the appropriate Magistrate (or in his absence, an available Judge) and depositing them with the court's secretary. The Magistrate will then rule upon the request for an ex parte order based upon the pleadings, sworn testimony, affidavits, and accompanying documents submitted therewith. If an emergency ex parte order is granted, the Court will require and set an emergency review hearing within ten (10) calendar days, if possible. Ex parte motions not granted will be set for hearing.

The moving party shall submit a journal entry for use by the court in the event the motion is granted. Motions for the appointment of a guardian ad litem, motions for psychological evaluations, motions for mediation, and other pretrial motions should be filed prior to the first status conference.

The court shall schedule the second status conference, the pretrial and the final divorce hearing in accordance with this schedule: status conference two, approximately 210 days following the filing of the complaint; the pretrial approximately 270 days following the filing of the complaint; and the final divorce hearing approximately 277 days following the filing of the complaint.

The court shall also schedule any necessary hearings on any pretrial motions of the parties or otherwise address any pending pretrial motions.

All parties are required to provide the opposing party with a written statement of opinion from any expert they intend to call expressing said expert's opinion on or before status conference two. The parties shall also provide each other and the court with a complete list of assets and liabilities, along with corresponding values of each.

Undisputed matters, including but not limited to grounds, identity of assets and debts, values of each, and admissibility of documents and reports without foundational testimony shall be stipulated by the parties at the second status conference. At the final divorce hearing, failure of a party to stipulate to undisputed matters may be considered by the court in any award of attorney fees to the party required to prove the matter.

In the event a party fails to disclose to an opposing party any evidence or witnesses as required by this rule, the non-disclosed evidence shall not be admitted and non-disclosed witnesses shall not be permitted to testify at the final divorce hearing, absent a showing of good cause. "Good cause" includes newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered prior to the second status conference or is developed after the second status conference based on or in rebuttal to evidentiary or witness disclosures of the other party at the second status conference.

All depositions and supplements to other discovery shall be completed by the final pretrial. Valuation of debts and assets shall be as of the date closest to the pretrial date.

Each party shall provide the opposing party and the court with a copy of the party's exhibit list together with copies all marked exhibits at the pretrial.

Each party shall provide the opposing party and the court with a complete list of witnesses, in the anticipated order they will be presented.

If the filings are incomplete, the Court, in its discretion, may continue the hearing or dismiss the matter.

The judgment entry shall reflect the court's ruling on all issues raised at the time of trial before the Magistrate and raised at the objections hearing, but not those expressly reserved for further proceedings. A judgment shall not contain only a recital of pleadings, the Magistrate's Decision in a referred manner, or the record of prior proceedings. All attachments and exhibits incorporated into a document must be affixed to the incorporating document.

12.02 CHILD AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT ORDERS

In the event of rejection, the opposing party or counsel shall file with the Court, at the time of such rejection, either a written statement of the objections to the proposed entry or that party's own proposed entry. This subsection shall not apply to uncontested matters where the opposing party has made no answer or appearance, or dissolutions of marriage.

Upon the failure of the opposing party or counsel to approve or reject any submitted judgment entry as provided in D.R. Rule 12.04, the preparer of the entry may unilaterally present the entry to the Court for journalization with a certification thereon that the provisions of D.R. Rule 12.04 have been complied with and the date on which such compliance occurred.

Upon failure of the ordered party to prepare a judgment entry, the other party may prepare the entry and submit it to the court subject to the requirements of D.R. Rule 12.04.

Transcripts are not required in an appeal of a magistrate's order. The magistrate's order remains in effect during the consideration of a motion to set aside unless the magistrate or the court grants a stay.

13.04 MAGISTRATE'S DECISION

- A) The agreed entry must be accompanied by a motion requesting the change with affidavits attached and executed by each parent indicating their agreement and setting forth specific facts from which the court can make a determination of whether the agreed change is in the best interest of the child or children;
- B) The agreed entry must be accompanied by child parenting affidavits executed by each parent pursuant to Ohio Revised Code 3109.27;
- C) The agreed entry must be accompanied by a child support calculation worksheet with attached verification of income executed by each parent;
- D) The agreed entry must specifically set forth modified provisions regarding child support, payment of medical expenses, medical support, tax dependency exemption, parenting time [visitation], and all other modified provisions, if relevant to the care of the child or children, and the name and address of each party's employer. If Ohio statutory child support guideline calculations indicate that a child support obligation must be imposed upon one of the parties, but the parties have agreed either: (1) not to exchange child support (which must be referred to as a "$0 support order", as opposed to a "no support order") or (2) deviate from the calculated amount, the pleadings must state with particularity, the reasons for said deviation as specified in Sections 3119.23 and 3119.24 as applicable and further the reasons the deviation is in the best interests of the minor children. The Court, in its discretion, may impose the full, calculated child support obligation upon a finding that the parties' agreement is not in the best interests of the children.

If the court cannot determine whether the agreed change of the residential parent is in the best interest of the child or children from the documents submitted or if the parties fail to fully comply with this rule, the court shall set the motion for change of residential parent for hearing before the Magistrates.

TITLE 16: PSYCHOLOGICAL OR PSYCHIATRIC EVALUATIONS TO ASSIST THE COURT REGARDING ALLOCATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

(1) The court may, as part of a pre-trial order, appoint a psychologist or psychiatrist (hereinafter referred to as the evaluator) to conduct an evaluation on the issues of custody and/or parenting time (hereinafter referred to as the evaluation) in order to assist the court in the determination of the allocation of parental rights. The evaluation shall be prepared in accordance to the pertinent standards for forensic psychologists and psychiatrists.

(2) The court will allocate the costs of the evaluation between the parties. The cost shall be paid directly by the parties to the evaluator, and shall not be taxed as court costs. Initial allocation of the responsibility for the initial deposits to the evaluator shall be made by the court at the time of the order on a case-by-case basis. The final allocation of responsibility of the payment of the evaluation may be reviewed at the final hearing upon the request of either party.

(B) The Evaluation.

(1) Introduction. By reason of its very nature, the evaluation contains highly confidential and sensitive information. The court has a duty to the parents and children to keep the evaluation as confidential as possible, while at the same time allowing the parents, their attorneys and the Guardian ad litem access to the evaluation in order to make informed decisions and recommendations regarding the best interests of the child. Furthermore, since the evaluation may be used by the court in making a decision regarding the best interests of the child, the court should allow sufficient access to afford the litigants due process of law. It is with these interests in mind, the court establishes this rule.

(2) The evaluator shall transmit the evaluation to the court by certified mail return receipt requested addressed to the magistrate assigned to decide the case. Said evaluation shall be mailed to and held by the assigned magistrate's assistant by the date ordered by the court but, in any event not later than forty-five (45) days before the scheduled final hearing. This evaluation is the property of the court. It shall not be filed with the Clerk of Courts. Only the party's attorney, an unrepresented party, the Guardian ad litem and the magistrate and judge assigned to the case shall be permitted access to the evaluation. The evaluator shall organize the evaluation in such a way that any recommendations are included on a separate page or pages at the end of the evaluation.

(C) Access to the Evaluation

(1) The magistrate's assistant shall notify attorneys of record, unrepresented parties and Guardian ad Litem when the evaluation is received. The attorney, unrepresented party or Guardian ad item must sign the Request for Review of Evaluation (Appendix 1 of Rule 14, The Domestic Relations Court Local Rules) before reviewing the file. The evaluation may be reviewed at the assigned magistrate's office. The file may not be photocopied, photographed, recorded, transcribed or otherwise copied verbatim, but summary notes may be taken.

(2) Attorneys and pro se litigants may receive copies only of the recommendation portion of the evaluation and then only after reading the report in its entirety. The attorney, unrepresented party or Guardian ad litem must legibly initial each page of the evaluation before the court will provide a copy of the recommendation section.

(3) No party shall share any information found in the evaluation with the minor children or with any other person who is not a party to the case. Attorneys are expected to use professional discretion in sharing information with their clients. As an officer of the court, an attorney of record or guardian ad litem shall make no disclosures about the evaluation except as necessary to perform his/her professional duties. Any person who violates this provision can be found in contempt of court subject to being fined and/or jailed.

(4) The court may allow more extensive access to an evaluation to a party's attorney, an unrepresented party or Guardian ad litem after written motion to the court. The court shall give notice of the motion to all parties in the case and the evaluator. The court may schedule a hearing on the motion. The court may grant more extensive access to the evaluation if it finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the presumption of disallowing more extensive access is no longer outweighed by a higher interest. When making this determination, the court shall consider whether the original reason for the restriction of more extensive access no longer exists or is no longer applicable.

(D) The Evaluation as Evidence

(1) The evaluation shall be accepted into evidence as the evaluator's direct testimony. The evaluator may be subject to cross examination by either party. A party desiring to cross-examine shall arrange for the evaluator's appearance at hearing and is responsible for paying the fee for that appearance.

(2) Although access to the evaluation is restricted, it shall be considered as part of the original papers and exhibits filed with the trial court for purposes of the record on Civil Rule 53 objections and the record on appeal.

TITLE 17: GENERAL TRIAL AND HEARING PROCEDURES

17.01 GENERAL TRIAL AND HEARING PROCEDURES

The following shall apply to all trials and hearings:

A) Arrearages for support accruing under a temporary order for support shall be reduced to a sum certain payable through the Child Support Enforcement Agency unless specifically waived by the obligee. However, if the obligee is receiving or has received public assistance during the pendency of the action, such arrearage shall be reduced to a sum certain judgment payable through the Child Support Enforcement Agency and cannot be waived.

B) It must be determined at trial if there is any issue born during the marriage or expected 300 days after trial.

C) A request for an award of attorney's fees may be supported by testimony from the party at trial and an affidavit submitted by the requesting attorney containing an itemized statement describing the services rendered, the time for such services, and the hourly rates charged. Expert testimony shall not be necessary. The statement of attorney's fees, as contained in the submitted affidavit, shall be presumed reasonable, subject to evidence to the contrary and Rule 1.5 of the OHIO RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT.

17.02 COUNSELING FOR PARENTS WITH CHILDREN

When parents of minor children file a divorce or dissolution, they shall be required to attend a program as designated by the court focusing on children's rights when the marriage is terminated.

Upon demonstrating that a party is entitled to relief for good cause shown, the court may waive all or part of the counseling fee or relieve the party of his or her obligation to attend the program on a case-by-case basis.

When divorced parties file post-decree motions for change of custody or visitation, the court may require the parties to attend the three-hour counseling program and pay the counseling fee as set forth above.

17.03 KIDS FIRST PROGRAM

When parents of a minor child file a divorce, dissolution, or complaint for legal separation, they shall be required to send their child to a program designated by the court focusing on giving the child coping skills to successfully overcome difficulties associated with changes in their family structure.

On a case-by-case basis, for good cause shown, the court may relieve a party of the obligation to send their child to the program.

TITLE 18: PARENTING TIME/COMPANIONSHIP/VISITATION SCHEDULES

18.01 PARENTING TIME/COMPANIONSHIP/VISITATION SCHEDULES

Liberal visitation is encouraged by the court, taking into account the number of children, their ages, and the geographic proximity of the parties. The visitation schedule, to the extent possible, should encourage periods of visitation of significant duration and minimize frequent shifting of the children back and forth between their parents.

The parties are encouraged to agree upon a schedule of visitation. If they cannot agree, the court will normally order visitation as set forth in the schedule attached to this Rule unless the particular circumstances indicate that such visitation would not be in the best interests of the children.

In split custody situations, this Rule shall not apply. When split custody is involved, visitation shall be as ordered by the court, consistent with the philosophy of this Rule and provide, to the extent possible, that siblings shall be together during periods of visitation.

- 1) Flexibility and cooperation by the parents in handling all aspects of visitation is in the best interests of the children. The parties shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate each other's needs, as well as the needs of the children, in implementing the ordered schedule of visitation. The parties may, from time to time, mutually agree to visitation that varies from the ordered schedule of visitation to accommodate their needs and the needs of the children.
- 2) Basic Visitation Schedule:
 - (a) Alternate weekends from Friday to Sunday for a period of forty-eight (48] consecutive hours. If the parties are unable to agree otherwise, said visitation shall commence at 6:00 P.M. on Fridays and end at 6:00 P.M. on Sundays;
 - (b) The nonresidential parent shall have one midweek visitation per week. If the parties are unable to agree, then this midweek visitation shall be every Wednesday evening from 4:30 P.M. (or as soon thereafter as the nonresidential parent is available) until 8:00 P.M.
 - (c) For the purpose of visitation, there are seven (7) holidays as follows:
 - (1) Martin Luther King Day
 - (2) President's Day
 - (3) Easter
 - (4) Memorial Day
 - (5) Fourth of July
 - (6) Labor Day
 - (7) Thanksgiving

In the odd-numbered years, the Mother shall have the children on the odd-numbered holidays; and the Father shall have visitation on the even-numbered holidays. In the even-numbered years, the Father shall have the odd-numbered holidays; and the Mother shall have the even-numbered holidays.

Any holiday falling on Monday or Friday shall be deemed as including the immediately preceding or immediately subsequent weekend, commencing at 10:00 a.m. (on Fridays) and ending at 8:00 P.M. on Mondays.

Thanksgiving shall always be deemed as commencing on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving (after school) until the subsequent Sunday at 6:00 P.M.
All other holiday visitation shall be from 10:00 a.m. until 8:00 P.M. on the day of the holiday.

- (d) The non residential parent shall have the children for one-half of the Christmas break. "Christmas break" shall be deemed as commencing the day after the last day of school at 10:00 a.m. until the day before school reconvenes at 6:00 p.m. (including weekends) but not including December 24 and December 25. In the event there is an odd number of days during Christmas break, the nonresidential parent shall have the children for the extra day. The nonresidential parent's choice of dates during Christmas break has priority over the residential parent's Christmas break schedule if the nonresidential parent notifies the residential parent of the dates not later than October 1st. of the applicable year. Absent timely notification by the nonresidential parent, the residential parent's Christmas break schedule shall have priority. For purposes of this paragraph a "day" is all or any portion of one calendar day.
- (e) In even-numbered years, the nonresidential parent shall have the children from 9:00 p.m. on December 24 until 6:00 p.m. on December 25. In odd-numbered years, the nonresidential parent shall have the children from 10:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. on December 24 and from 6:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. on December 25. The children shall be with the residential parent on December 24 and December 25 at all other times not otherwise specified on these dates.
- (f) On Mother's Day and Father's Day, no matter whose turn for visitation, the children will be with the appropriate parent. Visitation shall begin at 10:00 A.M. and continue until 6:00 P.M.
- (g) Five (5) weeks, consecutively or separately (for the nonresidential parent), during the school summer recess to be scheduled as early in the calendar year as possible, subject to the following:
 - (i) The non-residential parent's choice of the duration and dates of summer visitation has priority over the residential parent's summer vacation schedule if the nonresidential parent notifies the residential parent of the duration and dates of summer visitation not later than April 1 of the applicable year. Absent timely notification by the nonresidential parent, the residential parent's vacation schedule shall have priority.
 - (ii) Each parent shall be entitled to take the children on vacation away from that parent's residence for a period of up to fourteen (14) consecutive days upon advanced written notice to the other parent, accompanied by written agenda indicating the vacation destination, phone numbers where he or she can be reached, times of arrival and departure and method of travel. A complete itinerary with contact telephone numbers must be given to the other parent no later than ten (10) days prior to departure.
 - (iii) During the extended summer visitation (except the fourteen (14) day away-from-home vacations) children should continue to spend alternate weekends with each parent on the same schedule as the rest of the year. In addition, the residential parent shall enjoy companionship time with the children on the same midweek visitation schedule granted to the nonresidential parent during the balance of the year.

(iv) "School summer recess" is defined as beginning the day after the last day the children attend school and ending the day before school reconvenes.

(h) The child shall celebrate his/her birthday in the home of the residential parent unless it falls on a visitation day. The other parent can make up for the birthday with a separate birthday party, if desired.

(i) When conflicts arise under this Basic Visitation Schedule, the following priority schedule shall apply (in descending order) with lowered-numbered items taking priority over high-numbered items:

(i) Visitation at Christmas time;

(ii) Thanksgiving visitation;

(iii) Extended summer visitation;

(iv) Mother's Day and Father's Day

(v) Other holiday visitation;

(vi) Weekend visitation;

(vii) Midweek visitation;

(j) The continued participation in extracurricular activities (school related or otherwise) shall continue uninterrupted regardless of this visitation schedule. It shall be the responsibility of the parent with whom the children are with at the time of the activity to provide physical and reasonable economic costs of transportation to these activities. Each parent shall provide the other parent with notice of all extra-curricular activities (school related or otherwise) in which the children participate. Schedules of extracurricular activities (handwritten by the parent if no formal schedule is provided by the activity) and the name of the activity leader (including address and telephone number if reasonably available) shall also be provided to the other parent. Extracurricular activities of the children shall not be scheduled by the residential parent so as to unreasonably interfere with visitation.

(k) Absent agreement otherwise, the nonresidential parent shall pick up the children at the beginning of each visitation and the residential parent shall pick up the children at the end of each visitation for return to their residence.

(l) If a nonresidential parent is unable to exercise visitation, 24 hours' notice must be provided to the residential parent, absent exigent circumstances. A nonresidential parent more than thirty (30) minutes late for visitation forfeits that visitation. The court may consider frequently missed visitation, with or without notice, as grounds for modification of the visitation schedule and/or contempt.

A residential parent may cancel scheduled visitation due to a child's illness and should give 24-hours' notice, if possible. Any visitation canceled due to illness shall be made up as soon as is practicable.

(m) Visitation is a time for the children to be and do things with the parent with whom they do not live. During visitation, the children should not be left with babysitters, except for short durations or to facilitate work schedules.

(n) Open and free communication by telephone and otherwise shall be permitted between the children and the parent with whom they are not then residing. If long distance telephone charges are involved, calls should be generally limited to not more than 15 minutes.

(o) Upon either parent learning or determining, whichever occurs first, that he/she will be moving, he/she shall immediately notify the other parent except in those circumstances wherein notice is not required by Ohio Revised Code 3109.051(G) and provide the other parent with the moving date, new residence address and telephone number, and such other pertinent information that is necessary to effectuate a smooth transition for the children.

(3) When the Oldest Child Is less than Eighteen Months. The Basic Visitation Schedule shall not apply when the oldest child of the parents is less than eighteen months of age. When the oldest child of the parents is less than eighteen months of age the nonresidential parent shall have two (2) weekly visits with the child(ren).

If the parents cannot agree, these visits shall be every Wednesday from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and every Sunday from 12:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The general rules of visitation set forth in subparagraphs (i) through (n) of the Basic Visitation Schedule shall apply.

When the oldest child of the parents has attained the age of eighteen months, the visitation schedule shall be pursuant to paragraph (4) of this rule.

(4) When the Oldest Child is Eighteen Months to Three Years. When the oldest child of the parents is age eighteen months to three years, the basic visitation shall not apply. When the oldest child of the parents is age eighteen months to three years, the nonresidential parent shall have two (2) weekly visits, with one (1) being an overnight visit with the child(ren).

If the parents cannot agree, these visits shall be every Wednesday from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and every Saturday from 12:00 noon to Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

The general rules of visitation set forth in subparagraphs (i) through (n) of the Basic Visitation Schedule shall apply.

When the oldest child of the parents has attained the age of three years, visitation shall be pursuant to the basic visitation schedule as to all children of the parents.

(5) Travel Distance of 100 Miles or More. If the parents reside 100 miles or more from each other, the Basic Visitation Schedule shall not apply. If the parties cannot agree on a visitation schedule (unless the court otherwise orders), the following will normally be ordered as the visitation schedule by the court:

(a) Five (5) consecutive weeks for the nonresidential parent, commencing the first Sunday of the summer school vacation.

The residential parent shall be permitted to have the children, overnight, one (1) weekend from Saturday at 9:00 a.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. during the five (5) weeks of visitation. This weekend of visitation for the residential parent shall be exercised in the geographic area of the nonresidential parent's residence, unless the parents otherwise agree. The parents shall agree upon the designated weekend with priority given to the nonresidential parent's vacation plans.

(b) Each year at Christmas, the nonresidential parent shall have the children not less than seven (7) consecutive days over the Christmas school vacation. In odd-numbered years, the nonresidential parent shall have the children on Christmas Day in addition to the seven (7) consecutive days provided for herein.

(c) In even-numbered years, the nonresidential parent shall have the children from the Wednesday preceding Thanksgiving (after school) until the Sunday subsequent to Thanksgiving at 8:00 p.m.

(d) The nonresidential parent shall have the children every spring school break from the last day of school (after school) until the day before school reconvenes at 8:00 p.m.

(e) If travel time, by car, is less than three (3) hours one way, the nonresidential parent shall have the children from Friday at 8:00 p.m. until Sunday at 8:00 p.m. the last weekend of each month during the school year. If said weekend is preceded on Friday by a holiday or followed on Monday by a holiday, said weekend shall be deemed as including the holiday and shall commence at 10:00 a.m. (on Fridays) and end at 8:30 p.m. (on Mondays).

(f) Open and free communication by telephone and otherwise shall be permitted between the children and the parent with whom they are not then residing. Long distance telephone calls should be generally limited to not more than 15 minutes. To the extent possible, the parties should arrange to place or receive said calls in a manner that will result in each party bearing approximately equal telephone charges.

(g) Responsibility for transportation costs shall be included in the court's order. If the parents cannot agree on costs of transportation, costs shall be ordered by the court. The court may consider the costs of transportation to effectuate visitation as a factor in deviating from child support calculations.

(h) When a child or children of parents residing more than 100 miles from each other has not yet attained the age of five (5) years, visitation shall be as ordered by the court, consistent with the philosophy of visitation set forth by this Rule.

(i) When a child or children of parents residing more than 100 miles apart from each other has attained the age of fourteen (14) years, the visitation schedule shall be as set forth in this Rule unless the court otherwise orders.

(j) Upon either parent learning or determining, whichever first occurs, that he/she will be moving, he/she shall immediately notify the other parent except in those circumstances wherein notice is not required by Ohio Revised Code 3109.051(G) and provide the other parent with the moving date, new residence address and telephone number, and such other pertinent information that is necessary to effectuate a smooth transition for the children.

D) IRS offset collections will be credited immediately upon receipt to an obligor's arrears if the tax return is an individual return. However, if the obligor is remarried and the tax refund is a joint return, the CSEA will hold the offset monies for up to six (6) months to allow the obligor's spouse the opportunity to file a request and receive his/her portion of the tax refund. If the current spouse is willing to sign an affidavit to waive his/her rights to the offset, the monies received will be credited upon receipt of the affidavit.

E) The CSEA will accept an affidavit from an obligee granting credit for payment of support made just prior to a court order requiring payments through the CSEA. The affidavit will state when the CSEA should begin charging support against the obligor.

F) The CSEA will not give credit against current support and/or an arrearage other than the above-mentioned without a court order.

G) Child support and spousal support payments owing on the same case will be due at the same time frequency, i.e., child support is owed weekly, alimony must be weekly.

(B) When Ordered. The Court, upon its own motion or upon motion of either or both parties, may order both parties to participate in mediation at any time after service of summons in any action for divorce, legal separation or annulment, in which the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities and/or parenting time of the child(ren) is at issue, or at any time after the filing of a post decree motion to modify the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities and/or parenting time of the minor child(ren). This issue shall be addressed on the first occasion the case is considered by the Judge or Magistrate. Parties who have agreed to use the services of an outside mediator shall prepare and submit an order designating the mediator and allocating the responsibility for payment of the selected individual. Existing Court orders are not stayed or suspended during the mediation process. Mediation shall commence within twenty-eight (28) days of the date of the order referring the parties to mediation.

Within 45 days of the date of the order referring the parties to mediation or upon the termination of mediation, whichever occurs last, the mediator shall file a mediation report. Any agreement reached during mediation shall not be binding upon the parties until approved by the Court, who shall consider the best interests of the child(ren) when allocating parental rights and responsibilities and establishing a parenting time schedule.

The parties and counsel shall cooperate with all portions of the domestic violence screening process.

All parties and counsel shall advise the Court and Mediation Department of any domestic violence allegations known to them to exist or to have existed in the past, or which become known to them following the referral to mediation, but before the conclusion of the mediation proceedings.

Where there is a need, the Mediator shall provide referrals to legal counsel and other support services for all parties, including victims and suspected victims of domestic violence.

When violence or fear of violence is alleged, suspected, or present, mediation may proceed when the following conditions are satisfied:

By participating in mediation, a nonparty participant, as defined by R.C. 2710.01(D), submits to the Court's jurisdiction to the extent necessary for enforcement of this rule. Any nonparty participant shall have the rights and duties under this rule as are attributed to parties, except that no evidence privilege shall be expanded.

A violation of this rule may result in sanctions being imposed by the Court. Such sanctions may include attorney fees and other sanctions the Court deems appropriate.

23.08 – Status Report

The mediator shall inform the Court who attended the mediation and whether the case settled. If the case did not settle, the mediator shall inform the Court whether the case is scheduled for further mediation or is returned to the Court for further proceedings.
